

Why Provincetown?

We chose Provincetown as our site because of its history. It is a resort community that has been long known for its acceptance of various lifestyles.

This village is compact and offers a wide variety of shops, restaurants and night clubs. We feel that we have something to offer the P-town community by our presence, and that they will respond with the graciousness — and delicious clam chowder — for which they are renowned.

Why Choose Us?

Ours was the first public transvestite tour anywhere. We started 15 years ago and are still going strong. The Mardi Gras socials have drawn upwards of 2000 participants, drawn from all levels of society. We have proven that we can take any group of transvestites and give them a safe, fun-filled experience, free from guilt and recriminations, at prices which do not leave them feeling exploited. Our record stands as our best advertisement.

Your affordable rates entitle you to enjoy a series of accommodations. These include the guest houses, cottages, motels and hotels of the Provincetown resort community. They are the best the town can offer, combining modern conveniences with the innate charm of a Cape Cod fishing village. Rooms are double occupancy, singles available for more, and feature modern superior to deluxe facilities. All accommodations will expect and accept your femme, or male self, and your companion, if any...

And join in our anticipated schedule of events:

1. Bring a pair of flats as Ms. Bebe J. Scarpi escorts you through the Provincetown historical district. Businesses, including beauty parlors, which service the transvestite and appreciate transvestite support, will be pointed out for your convenience.

2. Cocktail parties! Lee G. Brewster's famous socials are back. The parties, to which all others are measured and found lacking, are being restored on our Provincetown weekends. The choice is yours: Come formal, semi-formal, casual, stag or drag, or just plain Jane. Learn what it is to enjoy an evening as your femme self, free of guilt and lectures.

3. Fashion show! The exotic boutique collection of transvestments will be shown on selected transvestite models. This will be your chance to experience the femininity and excitement of a top glamour runway model.

4. Brunches/dinner. We all love to munch. How many of us have the fantasy of sitting and enjoying a meal in a posh restaurant? That is just one culinary feature of our tour. Remember to bring your compact for a lady-like touch-up after the dinner!

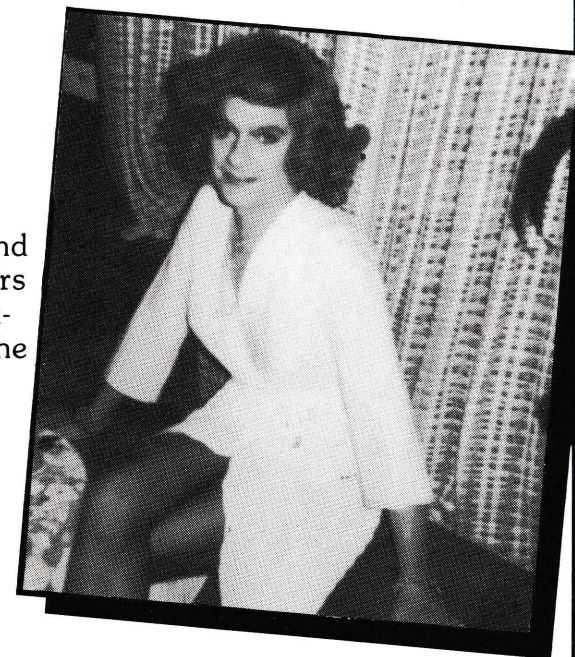

Fantasy, Socialize Freely And Experience a New Awareness Of Your Femme Self.

HOSTESSES WITH THE MOSTESSES

Bebe J. Scarpi, vice-president of Lee's Mardi Gras Enterprises, former director of Queens Liberation Front, the first transvestite political organization, lecturer on the transvestite lifestyle, former professional entertainer, currently a member of the Academia, en femme!, will be heading one aspect of the tour.

As a special hostess, Miss Vicky West, artist and model, responsible for the marvelous portrait covers of DRAG MAGAZINE, lends her considerable expertise to the event. She will be present exuding the charm and poise for which she is celebrated.

The incredible Teri Warren, doyen of the Fire Island drag set, creator of magnificent costumes and hairdos, cosmetologist, former organizer of her own successful New Orleans transvestite tour, completes the trio of New York hostesses. This legend of the Mardi Gras is immortalized in several books and magazines and promises to bring the wit and excitement she is known to generate to the tour.
