Dear Ms. South,

My name is Shawna Virago, a Hate Violence and Domestic Violence Client Advocate at Community United Against Violence (CUAV), a non-profit in San Francisco dedicated to preventing hate motivated violence. Information documenting your case was forwarded to me by the Intersex Society of North America. I am writing you asking permission to document your story as hate motivated violence.

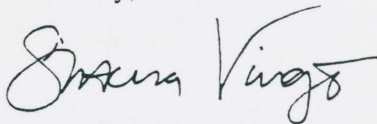

CUAV, in addition to trying to document and prevent hate violence, also provides short term emotional support to hate violent survivors. Also, we provide advocacy on behalf of client's with legal, social, and other types of organizations.

Ms. South I am also writing you asking for permission to contact the Northern California Service League and Prisoner's With Children on your behalf; in addition I would like to follow-up with your attorney Susan D. Christian.

I would also like to acknowledge the strength and resiliency you have displayed in advocating for yourself.

You may call me collect anytime at CUAV (Monday-Friday 10am to 6pm) and also when you are paroled you may contact me in person if you need emotional support.

Sincerely,

Shawna Virago
