Dear Judy:

I know that the last time I spoke with you I promised to send you a copy of the current National Prison Project Journal and Body Positive. I have been meaning to do it, and probably should have just thrown them in an envelope and sent them to you. Sometimes it's difficult for me to get a letter sent at the same time. Anyway, here is the Journal and Body Positive. Send me copies of the article in the Journal if possible.

Also, would you ask John if he received the letter and information I sent him regarding the mailing of the letterhead.

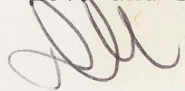

Today is really beautiful and I wish there was somewhere to go and just get away from all the craziness and people. Somewhere where the mid could flow free, dig? (smile) But, I have been at this typewriter since 7:40 a.m. (I was ten minutes late). I am trying to finish a couple of complaints and a brief too. And, I am also trying to get the newsletter all together. I just wrote Mike Flashner and asked him to do something for me. Perhaps, I should ask Linda Evans too? I mean there should be something on women and AIDS as well, right?

I have been thinking of asking Phyllis Frye, the transgendered attorney who heads the transgendered law conference, to join Transsexuals In Prison as an advisor or consultant, which would allow us to operate under the "attorney-client" umbrella. Then you could join the organization too and enjoy that privilege as well. I have written to Phyllis in awhile. She had asked me to do a written presentation on transsexuals in prison for the upcoming law conference. I'll let you know.

Have you seen the magazine called Prison Life? I am ordering it; though, they have it here in the library. There was nothing in it on gay or AIDS issues; but, alot of other interesting stuff. Plus, I was thinking that maybe I could contribute something on the issues that so many magazines that claim to have the interest of prisoners at hand ignore.

Well, I am going to run -- just want to drop you a few lines and get these rags off to you. Take care of yourself and don't let the heat -- if it's hot there -- get you down, and learn to laugh at the pressures of work and the world.

Love and sisterhood,
